

SHILOH CEMETERY

(aka Avery Cemetery)

Copied in June 1971 by Mr. & Mrs. Orville Prill and Julius Hilleary of Fairfield, Iowa.

Transcribed by Karen McAtlin, 12 Feb 2013.

Edited by Richard Harrison, Feb 2013.

Additional listing added, July, 2013.

Shiloh Church was formerly located just across the road from what was originally known as Avery Cemetery after Robert Avery, widely known for his extensive orchards in pioneer days. This is the largest cemetery in the plant area and there are many unmarked graves. The cemetery is well maintained.

There are two cemeteries located at this site. The second is the Des Moines County Cemetery referred to in old burial records and obituaries. There is a unmarked lane between between the two, about where the church bell is located. Some remains from Elliot and Lee cemeteries may have been relocated to the southwest corner of the Des Moines County Cemetery.
